

Modal Verbs

Must / Mustn't

A- Mind the examples: Surely John is older than Mary. = John must be older than Mary. Change the following sentences in the same way.

1. I think you are made to do that.

2. I think you are mistaken.

3. I suppose they are a rich family nowadays.

4. John is working late at the office, I suppose.

5. I suppose the biggest city in the world is Xangai.

6. Surely he's very busy if he can't come to the party.

7. Surely those children over there are playing football.

8. Surely it is a policeman I can see over there.

B – Complete the following sentences with must or mustn't.

1. _____ I go now?
2. You _____ tell lies.
3. You _____ always tell the truth.
4. People _____ smoke in the theater.
5. We _____ sleep in the lessons.
6. You _____ have a substantial breakfast.
7. We _____ go to bed with our shoes on.
8. We _____ talk to each other in class.

C – Answer these questions with short form answers in the negative.

1. Must a man wear a hat in the church?

2. Must we make a lot of noise when our neighbours are sleeping?

3. Must you come to the table with dirty hands?

4. Must we speak with our mouth full?

5. Must we park our car in the middle of the garden?

6. Must we drive on the right in England?

